OVERVIEW

Aspiring web developer and creative technologist with a passion for merging code and creativity.

Grounded in core front-end technologies and driven by a love for clean, expressive design, I enjoy crafting interactive, user-centered web experiences.

Currently honing my skills through real-world projects and collaborative problem-solving.

Motivated by a deep interest in storytelling through digital interfaces, I'm eager to contribute to innovative teams and build meaningful, scalable solutions that connect, inspire, and perform.
